

COMMITTEE GETS INFORMATION OF EYE WITNESSES

Are Told of Conditions Existing in Ireland

CIVIL COURT PROCEDURE SUSPENDED

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Eye-witness reports of disturbances in Ireland connected with the movement for Irish independence were given today at the opening of the commission of the committee of one hundred investigating the Irish question.

Four witnesses, including Dennis Morgan, chairman of the town council of Thurles, Ireland, and three Americans who visited Ireland recently, John F. Martin of Green Bay, Wis., and two clergymen, Father Mitchell English of Montana and Father James H. Cotter of Ironton, Ohio, were heard by the commission. All expressed sympathy for the Irish independence movement and told of violent events which they had seen and agreed that civil processes except of the provisional Irish republic were virtually at an end under the rule of the British military forces.

Witnesses Tell of Conditions

Mr. Morgan said his home was riddled with bullets prior to his arrest and deportation to England without any definite charges being preferred against him. With 200 other Irish Republican leaders, he said, he went on a hunger strike until they were released. He also told of "murders" of Irish citizens by constabulary and soldiers, including the "black and tan" forces.

Father English asserted that British soldiers had confiscated his papers. The military authorities derided his protests that he was an American citizen, he said, and he also told of having witnessed the shooting of an Irishman whose body, he said, was beaten into unrecognizable form.

Father Cotter, a Catholic editor, told of the killing of a Galway civilian by a British soldier without cause, he said. The soldier, he said, was seized by another civilian and reprisals against the town followed an hour later. Soldiers shot up the streets "for several hours" he said. The aged priest added that he lay for an hour and a half under a window ledge of his hotel to escape the flying bullets. The military, he added, later set fire to two houses and fired into a Galway newspaper plant whose management was friendly to the Republican movement. Father Cotter and Mr. Martin a Knights of Columbus official, stated that sentiment in Ireland as they found it was virtually unanimous for independence.

Civil Court Suspended

All witnesses said that civil court procedure was suspended in Ireland, coroners' inquests prohibited by the British government and that the only authority exercised except for the British military forces was that of the Irish Republicans. About 600 soldiers and 400 police are stationed constantly in Limerick, the Rev. English told the commission. Military raids thru Penninville, a Limerick district were so frequent, he said, that it had been named the "Penninville sector."

He told of a fire started either by hand grenades or incendiaries, which injured 200 houses in the Penninville district and said he saw many marks of the bullets and bombs.

Mr. Martin said he was halted and searched frequently by soldiers during a journey from Limerick to Cork. He said there were great numbers of military motor lorries in Cork, patrolling the streets continuously. In the space of five blocks, Mr. Martin said, he noted about 80 percent of the windows of houses and stores had been shattered by the activities of the soldiery.

No compensation has been made by the British government for the destruction of property whose destruction has been proved against its own forces, he declared.

FOOTBALL PLAYER DIES FROM INJURIES

(By The Associated Press) Decatur, Ill., Nov. 18.—Carl Harshbarger, of Atwood, died in a Decatur hospital tonight as a result of injuries sustained in the Atwood-Tuscola high school football game three weeks ago. The boy, 16 years old, was crushed about the kidneys and a last minute operation failed to save his life.

CORN AND OATS PRICES TAKE TUMBLE

(By The Associated Press) Chicago, Nov. 18.—Corn and oats tumbled in value today, and pulled down quotations on hogs to a point under any reached in nearly four years. The average price of hogs today was about $12.10 a hundredweight, a loss in many cases of 75 cents since yesterday.

GEDDES SAYS ONLY ONE COURSE FOR ANY COUNTRY NOW

He Seems to Be Worrying About United States

MUST BE PEACE LEAGUE BOOSTER

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Only two courses—co-operation with its fellows in maintaining peace, or isolation and the resultant drift toward inevitable war—present themselves to each nation in the world, Sir Auckland Geddes, the British ambassador declared tonight in an address before the chamber of commerce of the state of New York.

There are only two possible paths before each nation at a time of world change like this, the ambassador said. "It can co-operate its fellows and, maintaining peace and the fellowship between itself and then devote its energies to the solution of its internal problems. Alternatively it can follow the path that Germany followed in the years before 1914, throw the blame for its internal difficulties upon the other nations of the world and drift toward war. I know of no third road which any state can tread."

Asserting that invention was continuously reducing the time-size of the world, Sir Auckland asserted that "every day that passes makes the insulation of national thought and the isolation of national activity more truly impossible. The world waits for an answer to the question, 'are the British-American contacts to be fair and friendly, even in trade rivalry and trade competition, or are they to be marked by suspicion, political jealousy and schemings to establish exclusive spheres,' the ambassador said.

"If it is to be the first, then the future is bright. There is no problem which in friendly cooperation we cannot solve. If it were to be the second, sadness would possess me. The choice is yours, the British Empire offers America its friendship."

ENGLISH POLICE TO QUESTION VANDERLIP

Will Ascertain Activities in Russia—Intends to Discourage Travel Between Russia and England

(By The Associated Press) London, Nov. 18.—The American Embassy was notified today that Washington D. Vanderlip, California oil and mining engineer who recently was in Moscow will be closely questioned by the intelligence department of Scotland Yard on his arrival in London if the present plans of the police are carried out.

The interrogation will not necessarily be made with the view of taking action against Mr. Vanderlip's presence in England, it was said, but with the intention of ascertaining exactly what his activities had been in Russia in view of the many conflicting reports published in London.

Such interrogation, it was pointed out, would be in conformity with the recently adopted attitude of the British government of discouraging travel between Russia and England.

Mr. Vanderlip recently returned from Moscow and gave out a statement asserting that he had secured a concession for 400,000 square miles of land in Siberia, including Kamchatka, for a syndicate of Americans.

ATHENS CELEBRATES RECENT ELECTION

ATHENS, Nov. 17.—Like a college town after a football game, Athens turned out to celebrate this afternoon, the first natural expression shown here in many weeks, if not months. The crowds were good natured and made up of soldiers, young men and women. They were afoot, in carriages and automobiles, all carrying lithographs, paintings, photographs of the former king and other common officials.

There were shouts of, "Where is the man who voted for Ventiselos?" We think there was one! we want to see him!"

Individuals, hoarse from their cries, organized impromptu brass bands, violins, harps, bugles and anything with which to make noise.

The falling darkness brought arousing and disorders which were contributed to by soldiers coming in from Smyrna, where there have been troubles with the soldiery who have been insisting on being permitted to come home.

MR. OSBORNE RECEIVES COMMISSION

As Commissioner of Morgan County was received yesterday in the office of County Clerk Riegs and Mr. Osborne is therefore qualified legally as a member of the county board. The commission of Frank Mawson was also received but thru error the name was spelled "Manson" and was therefore sent back to Springfield for correction. As Gov. Lowden is out of the state, the commission was signed by Lieut. Gov. John G. Oglesby, who is the acting governor of the state.

FIRST DECISION ON RIGHT TO FIX RATES IN STATES

Commerce Commission Rules Against New York State

COMMISSIONER EASTMAN DISSENTS

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—In its first decision on the right of the federal government under the transportation act to require railroad rates within a state to correspond to the higher levels of interstate traffic the interstate commerce commission today ordered the railroads of New York to establish passenger and baggage rates on intrastate traffic conforming to advanced interstate schedules. Similar proceedings are pending affecting more than half the states in the union.

By its order of last August the commission authorized in the New York region an increase of 40 per cent in freight rates, 20 per cent in passenger fares, excess baggage charges and rates on milk and cream and also a surcharge of 50 per cent on Pullman accommodations. The New York public service commission granted the freight advance except milk but denied the other increases within the state and the carriers appealed to the interstate commerce commission.

The federal body held that there was a general obligation resting upon it to exercise control over intrastate commerce so far as it affects interstate commerce.

"The decisive factor," the ruling said, "is whether the rates under consideration injuriously affect interstate commerce."

Congress directed that rates be allowed which would yield a 6 per cent return of from 5 1/2 to 6 per cent on the value of the railway properties the commission stated, adding:

"There can be no doubt of the power of congress to devise and provide for carrying into effect a plan for assuring the nation's interstate railroads a fair return upon the value of their property and the full control of congress in this matter is not to be denied on the ground that the carriers aggregate earnings are a commingling of intrastate revenue and interstate revenue."

The record shows that the refusal of the state of New York to permit the carriers to increase the rates and fares here in controversy to the extent approved by us is costing the railroads between $11,000,000 and $12,000,000 annually. In other words, the annual earnings of the interstate carriers operating in New York are now between $11,000,000 and $12,000,000 less than they would be if the general level of rates and fares approved by us had become effective on intrastate traffic; and to that extent the declared purpose of congress is defeated by a preferential basis of rates and fares maintained by authorities of the state of New York.

"It has not happened heretofore that we have had occasion to make such an extensive exercise of our authority as is now contemplated and we could not be moved to do so, save by the most cogent reasons. Such reasons have been supplied by the situation in which the transportation interests of the country were placed and the action taken by congress to relieve that situation."

A dissenting opinion was handed down by Commissioner Eastman, who contended that the decision of the majority was beyond the lawful power of the commission.

"The objection is more than technical," he declared, "for it concerns the basic relations between the state and federal government—a matter of great moment."

CORSETS SELLING AT REDUCED PRICES

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Corsets have joined the list of articles of apparel selling at reduced prices. A large Chicago corset manufacturer today announced reductions of from 20 to 25 per cent on cotton, silk and elastic corsets.

"We want to do what we can to help get things going on a safe and sane basis as quickly as possible," the announcement said, after explaining that the reduction was being made despite the fact the material used was purchased months ago at high prices. It continued:

"Folks will be happier, business more brisk and everybody will benefit when prices reach the lower level."

Will Send Military Contingents To Vilna

GENEVA, Nov. 18.—Great Britain and Spain will send military contingents to Vilna to maintain order during the "popular consultation of the inhabitants."

This announcement was made this evening by the assembly of the league of nations. It was added that French and Belgian governments already had agreed to dispatch contingents thither.

There had been no intimation here that this action by the assembly was impending. The communication issued this evening avoids the use of the word "plebiscite" in connection with the despatch of the troops. When General Zeligowski entered Vilna with his outlaw troops some time ago he announced it as his purpose to allow the inhabitants to determine their government.

Geneva, Nov. 18.—In a somewhat agitated session today the league of nations assembly completed its organization by the election of six vice-presidents, who with the six chairmen of the committee selected yesterday, form a sort of executive committee of the assembly. The

Prohibition Officer Was Beaten Up By Prisoners

GLENN YOUNG HANDLED ROUGHLY

(By The Associated Press) SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 18.—S. Glenn Young of East St. Louis, prohibition enforcement officer, was attacked and beaten up by a number of federal prisoners in the county jail here tonight when he was incarcerated on an indictment returned at Madison county charging him with murder.

Jail attaches had put Young in the "bull pen" of the jail until a writ of habeas corpus could be secured for his release. While he was awaiting this writ, a number of the prisoners who held him responsible for their being in jail for violation of prohibition laws attacked him. They administered a severe beating and were throwing hot water upon him when jail officials came to his rescue.

Young was indicted for the murder of Luka Vuckovic, on November 6, at Madison, Ill., during a raid upon the Vuckovic home in search of whiskey.

JAP JOURNALISTS DEMAND PROTEST

World Make National Protest on Hostile Legislation in California—Talk of Appeal to World Opinion

(By The Associated Press) Tokio, Nov. 18.—A committee of Tokio journalists adopted a resolution here today demanding that a national protest be made against California legislation hostile to the Japanese. They decided to hold a mass protest meeting in Tokio and also to amalgamate with the twenty scattered societies dealing with the immigration question. The Kokumin Shimbun and the Yozon Choho, which led the outcry against the California legislation simultaneously advocated appeals to public opinion in preference to stronger courses. The Kokumin Shimbun suggests a war of tongues as a middle course between the old alternatives of humiliation and war. Japan's resistance to California legislative discrimination it says, should take the form of an appeal to the public opinion of the world.

The Asahi Shimbun suggests that the Shantung question should be decided by international arbitration. It says that Japan has nothing to fear from such a course.

PLEADS FOR SOBER THINKING AND FAITH IN CRITICAL PERIOD

President Elect Says Some Reverses Must Come

MUST HOLD FAST TO OLD TIME VIRTUES

(By The Associated Press) NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 18.—Sober thinking and abiding faith in the republic during the critical period of war reconstruction were asked of the American people today by President-elect Harding in an address delivered here just before he sailed for a three weeks' vacation voyage to the canal zone.

Some reverses and disappointments he declared must come as the aftermath of the world conflict, but he predicted confidently that all of them would pass away if the people "only kept their heads" and held fast to the old time virtues of thrift, honesty and common sense. Making his second formal speech since his election, Mr. Harding spoke in studied terms and with a quiet earnestness. But ringing thru his address was a note of confidence and unflinching faith.

"A confident America, buttressed by resources never equaled before by any people and governed by a free representative government, was the ideal which the president-elect declared must be kept in view. He said no one desired that the old order should return but he maintained that in building for the new order there must be no acceptance of strange cure-alls and fancy theories."

Great Crowds Cheer

The address was delivered at a luncheon of the New Orleans Association of Commerce, the central feature of a program of entertainment by which the city sought to show the president-elect that the partisanship of the campaign already had been forgotten. Great street crowds cheered Mr. Harding during his short stay and to a gathering of thousands in front of the City Hall he expressed his gratitude for the hospitality extended him thru the south.

Following the luncheon Mr. Harding was the guest at a reception held at the Elks' home, where he was presented with a gold watch, the gift of the local lodge.

His "little talk" promised the committee of Elks developed into a fifteen minute address to a crowd of several thousand gathered in front of the home. The president-elect was in New Orleans about five hours. He arrived shortly before 11 o'clock in the morning and went aboard his steamer, the United Fruit Line Parimima, shortly after 4:00 p. m. Soon afterward the Parimima started on the four-day run to Cristobal.

Any possibility that the vessel would touch at a Mexican port on her way down, in response to an invitation extended to Mr. Harding by the Mexican government, disappeared when the president-elect that such a stop would carry the Parimima three days out of her course. She already had delayed her sailing one day to wait for the presidential party, and as she carries a number of regular passengers, Mr. Harding would not approve of further change in plans.

DEMPSEY-BRENNAN BOUT DECEMBER 14

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Jack Dempsey, the world's heavyweight champion, will defend his title in a fifteen-round bout against Bill Brennan, the Chicago challenger, at Madison Square Garden on Friday, Dec. 14.

This will be the first contest between big fellows to be decided in New York state under the Walker law and was made possible by the state boxing commission today.

In a statement the commissioners gave out tonight they said that a point had been reached in the operation of the boxing law where they felt justified in permitting heavyweight boxing contests.

ELECTION JUDGES AND CLERKS SUMMONED

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Judges and clerks from 56 precincts of the fifth congressional district have been summoned to appear before election commissioners to explain alleged discrepancies in the votes tallied for Congressman A. J. Sabath, Democrat, re-elected.

According to the canvass of the votes today, Congressman Sabath, on the face of the returns, defeated J. Gartenstein, Republican by 306 votes. Gartenstein claims that a large number of precincts where the tally sheets show many straight Republican ballots, he was given fewer votes than the other candidates.

OIL RESOURCES ARE NOWHERE NEAR EXHAUSTION

Supply Would be Jeopardized by Government Regulation

SUPPLY FOR YEARS TO COME

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—An oil production sufficient to supply the world for several generations at least was forecast today at the annual meeting here of the American Petroleum Institute. Henry L. Dougherty of New York; Thomas A. O'Donnell, of Los Angeles, president of the institute, and R. D. Benson, president of the Tidewater Oil Company, declared that the petroleum resources of the world were nowhere near exhaustion.

Mr. O'Donnell, however, attacked the navy department for its seizure of oil stocks on the Pacific Coast. Producers there, he said, "feel that these navy department has not been fair," and added:

"We believe this to be due to the extreme prejudice of the head of the department."

Mr. O'Donnell and Mr. Dougherty both declared that Government regulation of the petroleum industry was likely to jeopardize the world's future oil supply by discouraging development of new fields.

"What the petroleum business needs is assurance that it can proceed in the development of new sources of supply," Mr. Dougherty declared, "in a competitive and non-restricted manner. Government regulation and meddling will check the initiative of oil companies resulting in a restricted output."

Mr. Dougherty predicted there would be sufficient gas-fuel extracts but was of the opinion that the probability of finding an artificial substitute for petroleum was remote.

HUGHES ADVOCATES DIRECT PRIMARY

Would Use System in Nomination for State and Lesser Offices—Once Primary Has Proved Failure

(By The Associated Press) Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 18.—Charles Evans Hughes advocated retention of the direct primary system in making party nominations for offices in state and lesser political units in an address tonight before the convention of the National Municipal League.

Speaking on the fate of the direct primary, Mr. Hughes said the primary system could be made an effective barometer of the will of parties only when primary laws provided for strict enrollment of voters, thus insuring that nominations be along party lines. The open primary in which citizens vote the ticket of which party they choose, he said, has proved a failure.

The ideal method of making nominations, Mr. Hughes said, was to have a convention to which delegates would be chosen by elections within the membership of the party.

This convention besides drawing a platform enunciating the policies of the organization should discuss likely candidates for office making public their recommendations to be subsequently ratified or reversed in favor of other candidates by the voters at the primary elections.

PRICES OF CANNED GOODS MAY BE LOWER

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Prices of canned goods will be no higher and may be somewhat lower in the coming months, Walter J. Sears, of Chillicothe, Ohio, president of the National Canners' association, said today.

"The present decline in the price of canned goods is due to financial conditions, not to any over-production," he said. "We don't know what the materials will cost in the coming year, but we don't expect them to go higher and they may be somewhat lower."

Canned goods prices are at a very low ebb on account of lack of markets and the necessity of canners liquidating their finished product, according to H. A. N. Daily, president of the National Association of Canned Food and Dried Fruit Brokers, who spoke before the opening session of the western association of canners.

"Government demonized the canned food industry," he said. "These goods are nearly as abandoned now and business is regaining its lost ground."

PRESIDENT WILSON'S HEALTH IMPROVING

Washington, Nov. 18.—President Wilson's health was said today by white house officials to have shown improvement since the election and the consequent removal of the anxiety shown by the president over the decision of the electorate. Mr. Wilson is devoting much time to public business and to the preparation of his annual message to congress.

CITY COURTS ARE TO BE ABOLISHED TO NEW CONSTITUTION

Probate Judges and Police Magistrates Also Go

JUSTICES OF PEACE TO DO WORK

(By The Associated Press) SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 18.—The abolition of city courts, police magistrates and probate judges from the judicial system of the state were the main features in the judiciary report which was adopted in its entirety with the exception of one section by the constitutional convention today.

The delegates worked into the night with such vigor that they might get thru with this phase of the new constitution. Adjournment was taken until Monday at 3 P. M. when the initiative and referendum report will be considered.

Many important changes were made in the old constitution affecting the judiciary system of the state. The abolition of the several courts, however, probably was the salient feature. Delegates favoring the report as submitted were led by Frederick DeYoung of Chicago, argued that the present city courts and police magistrates worked in opposition to courts financed by the state, having the same jurisdiction. It was explained that until 1907 the city paid the salaries of judges of those courts. At that time a law was enacted compelling the state to pay them and as a consequence it was said by courts sprung up in cities throughout the state of ten thousand population or over "like mushrooms."

Justices Will Do Work

Justices of the peace will now take over the work of those two branches. In abolishing the office of judge of the probate court, the delegates decided that in counties, other than Cook, the county judges could take over the work. In Cook county the circuit court functions in that capacity. Provision is made that in counties having a population of 75,000 may authorize the election of a second county judge, if the general assembly deems such a law necessary.

Another outstanding feature of the judiciary report, probably more important to members of the bar than to the average layman, was the vesting of power in courts to prescribe rules of pleading and practice before them. Heretofore this was provided by statute but the process was reversed. As adopted individual courts may work out a simplified method of procedure and practice. The scheme was copied after a court in England is was explained.

The fee system for justices of the peace thruout the state was abolished by adoption of the report. Under the report board of supervisors shall fix the salary of the justices, the salary to be paid by the district in which the officer is elected. All fees collected by justices must be accounted for to a district treasury to be fixed by legislature.

The main change in the judiciary system, affecting Cook county directly, was the consolidation of the circuit, superior and probate and county courts of Cook county and the city court of Chicago Heights into what will be known as the circuit court of Cook county to be presided over by 42 judges. This court shall have original jurisdiction in probate matters.

Will Consolidate Courts

The criminal court of Cook county and the municipal court of Chicago were to be consolidated into what will be known as the district court of Cook county which will have jurisdiction in all criminal cases and civil right to act in contract and tort cases when amounts less than $2,000 are involved in addition to exclusive jurisdiction in appeal cases from justices of the peace. This court will consist of 31 judges who will hold sessions in all the villages and towns in Cook county. The newly created district and circuit courts each will have a chief justice to be appointed by the state supreme court. Justices of the peace in Cook county will be appointed by the chief justice of the district court. Another provision in the reports that judges of all state courts must have been admitted to the bar. There was no such provision in the old constitution now in effect. Judges of the appellate courts will be appointed by the supreme court such appointments to be made from the body of the bar and not from judges of the circuit court. The jurisdiction of the appellate courts will be fixed by the supreme court subject to control by the legislature. The matter as to whether there shall be seven or nine members in the supreme court will be taken up when the delegates convene next week. The minority report favors nine judges and the majority seven. If there are to be nine three will come from Cook county.

Corn is now down to 55c a bushel. It can easily be proven that this price is below the cost of production. Some farmers are consequently feeling mighty gloomy. But it is noticeable that most of them are confident that a reaction will come, as they are firm in the belief that conditions cannot long prevail which will require the selling of commodities at prices below the cost of production.

If the Kansas Industrial Court proves the millers guilty of conspiring to cut production and punishes them perhaps Alexander Howard and other radicals may think the law creating the Court was not so bad after all.

Benjamin R. Upham, who passed away Thursday, was in many ways a remarkable man. He lived to be past 90 years of age and until within a year carried on some business affairs. He wanted to work. He sought to keep busy and was a wonderful exponent of the theory that it is better to wear out than to rust out. Those who knew Mr. Upham intimately recognized his unflinching cheerfulness and optimism. In these things he was an inspiration to many men younger in years.

It is gratifying to note that the utility companies now asking for increases in service rates are courting publicity. The companies declare that they want their patrons to know the facts about operation costs, for they believe fully in the fairness of their patrons. They believe that the people want service and are willing to pay the proper price for it. With the companies ready to detail all the facts, they will find the people ready to join them in the investigation.

Senator Kenyon's committee on housing says that there is a shortage of 18,000,000 homes in the U. S. Granted that these figures are correct, it is easy to understand that the housing problem is already one of the greatest that faces the nation. There is no denying that living conditions have a very large effect on citizenship.

So it happens that the housing commission hopes some plan can be devised for having the people of the U. S. live in sanitary and comfortable homes. This hope is not born merely of the wish to have men, women and children comfortable for comfort's sake, but because with the proper home surroundings they will be better satisfied and more useful citizens.

GETTING BACK TO GOVERNMENT

"As measured by the terms of the Republican platform and by the conditions which confront the nation, the task assumed by the Republican party is by no means a light one," declares the Republican Publicity Association. "The task would be difficult regardless of the party that assumed it or the pledges it had made. Following eight years of profligacy in Federal administration and a like period of development of bureaucracy, getting back to government by law and government in accordance with sound economy will not be easy. To increase public expenditures is always easy; to curtail is doubly difficult for the reason that the people have become accustomed to certain government activities and expect continuance even though the new activity may be a duplication of work performed by another bureau.

Getting back to government by law will be a considerable undertaking, for officialdom at Washington has learned to look upon government as a delegation of almost unlimited authority to exercise discretion in telling the American people what they may and may not do from time to time. The idea of putting regulations definitely and specifically upon the statute books so that a citizen may put his finger upon the page and paragraph that establishes his duties or limits his liberty, is repugnant to bureaucracy. A new postmaster general may acquiesce in such an innovation but all down the line of subordination it will be difficult to get over the idea that the P. M. G. is a little king. Yet getting back to government by law was the first pledge of the Republican platform, and it will be carried out."

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

I cannot talk worth fourteen cents, and so no spels I spring; and much I envy gifted gents who make the welkin ring. Chautauqua magnates ply their game, and promise bundles fine, if I'll write my moral name upon the dotted line. And often I am tempted sore; then I hear Conscience say, "What right have you, I ask, to bore an audience for pay? You know that every time you've tried to paint the welkin red, a lot of wilted eggs were shied, in anger, at your head. How much of boredom we'd avoid, how much of language blue, if fewer fellows were employed at work they cannot do! I'm weary of that singer's screech who knocks the notes to pulp; I'm tired of hearing blacksmiths preach, and seeing farmers sculp. I'm glad that I have sense enough to know where I'm a frost and so I dodge the platform stuff, tho' at a frightful cost; for there the easy money lies, and there the soft snaps grow; the country's full of talking guys who trade hot air for dough. But as a speaker I am tough, which cannot be denied; I'm glad that I have sense enough to let the welkin slide.

A VOLUNTEER FIREMAN
It was a mighty warm atmosphere that pervaded the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Leach, a few miles southwest of Jacksonville, last night. Mr. and Mrs. Leach were in the city during the afternoon and returned home about 6 o'clock. When they entered the living room they found a temperature of something more than 90 degrees. Mr. Leach hastened to the basement to find the cause. It was dark down there and he heard someone moving about. Thinking it was the hired man, he called out: "Jimmy, is that you?" There was no response. Then Mr. Leach got a light and found that a strange man was in his furnace cellar.

The visitor calmly explained that he had been firing the boiler for several hours but couldn't seem to get up much heat. He had the drafts open and the fire pot liberally supplied with coal. A little conversation developed that the visitor was a resident of Jacksonville State hospital, who had walked away for a visit in the country. He didn't realize that most of the heat generated from Mr. Leach's hot water plant was going into the rooms above and so he kept on firing in an endeavor to make it nice and warm in the basement. A phone message brought men from the State hospital who escorted the patient back to the hospital.

SPANISH BULL RING ONE OF BIG SCENES

Is Featured in Elks Jollies of 1921—Bob Lenington is the Big Hit in This Scene.

The clack of Castanets, dancing girls with beribboned tambourines and that exotic atmosphere characteristic of the land of the senoritas are all a part of the scene laid in a Spanish bull ring in the second act of the Elks "Jollies of 1921" at the Grand next Wednesday and Thursday nights, Nov. 24 and 25. Unusually elaborate scenery and costumes are used in this scene in which a dancing chorus of twenty-four will be seen in Spanish dancing numbers.

Into this scene wanders Clarence Wildwave, a former floor-walker, played by Bob Lenington. When the absence of the regular bull-fighter is discovered the ex-floor-walker is persuaded to substitute in his place. His encounter with the bull furnishes one of the brightest comedy scenes in the entire show.

Comedy is also the offering of Alex Robb, of the Bren Company, who will appear in the scene following that of the bull-ring with a brand new monologue with a Spanish flavor.

The seat sale for both performances will begin next Monday morning at the box office. Advance tickets sold by Elks must be exchanged for reserved seats.

GOOD ROADS MEN VISITORS IN CITY

J. C. Wilson and A. E. Nissen of Mississippi Valley Highway Association Confer With Local Men.

Good roads boosters associated with the management of the Mississippi Valley Highway affairs came to Jacksonville yesterday and will be here today. The visitors are Jack C. Wilson, formerly of Grenada, Miss., now living at Carrollton, Ill., the new secretary and general manager of the association; A. E. Nissen, of Iowa City, official organizer and B. E. Miller, of Chicago, superintendent of installation for the Good Roads Service Co.

The visitors met with Vincent R. Riley, president of the Morgan County Good Roads Association, and other local good roads boosters last night at the Dunlap hotel. Various matters relating to the affairs of the highway and good roads in general were discussed. Mr. Wilson is a man of experience and ability as an organizer and has served for the past two years as executive secretary of the Mississippi Welfare league. During the coming year he will devote all his time to the interests of the Mississippi Valley highway. His headquarters will be in Carrollton, which is the home of Hon. Stuart E. Piereson, the new president of the association.

The Good Roads Service Co. has the contract for the metal posts and service signs which are to be erected along the highway. Mr. Miller, who as stated, is the superintendent of this company, assured the Jacksonville men last night that this work will be done as far as New Orleans by April 1. The sign posts have already been erected on all the highway between Burlington and Rushville. The men who are engaged in this work expect to reach Jacksonville by Thanksgiving Day. The visitors said last night that they were sorry not to find Carl H. Weber here as he has been actively identified with the highway and is accounted all along the line as one of the best boosters for the development and maintenance of this highway.

"SWEET LAVENDER"

From the play by Sir Arthur Wing Pinero.....
TRUE LOVE IS ETERNAL
You can as easily turn back the tide or dam a river with sand as to part two youthful lovers. A comedy of youthful love and elderly meddling. A comedy that proves it's no use shutting a lovesick girl up in a boarding school unless you remove the fire-escapes. The story of a girl whose personality was as sweet as the flower name she bore. One of England's most famous stage successes played by one of America's best loved stars—Mary Miles Minter in Pinero's "Sweet Lavender." The landlady shouldn't have had such a lovely daughter as Lavender if she didn't want the roomers to fall in love. She may be a sweet shy little thing, but when she puts on boy's clothes, climbs out of the window at midnight and hits the trail—watch out! Her name was Lavender—but she herself was true blue. A comedy which proves that the best laid plans of mice and matchmakers gang aft agley. Sweet Lavender—does not that make you think of your grandmother's treasure chest? She made Clem think she was a treasure, you may be sure. Puppy love? Well, maybe. But you've heard how a puppy holds on to a root. Even puppies know what they want. Her Name was Lavender, but she could behave like a regular pepper box.

RED MEN ENJOYED COON HUNT THURSDAY

Journey to Farm Home of J. A. Crum Where Hunt Was Held—Chili Was Served by the Host After the Hunt.

Fifteen automobiles loaded with members of Delaware Tribe No. 78 Improved Order of Red Men and their paleface friends journeyed to Samartia Inn, the country home of J. A. Crum Thursday evening where the annual coon hunt was enjoyed.

In addition to the members and their friends a large number of people residing in the vicinity also assembled at the Crum home to take part in the festivities. Chief W. G. Wolfe and Chief I. M. Bunce lost the trail on the way out but finally arrived safely.

Soon afterward the young bucks of the tribe started on the hunt but so far as can be ascertained they did not have much luck and expect to try it again later on.

When they returned from the hunt Chief Crum served chili in abundance to his guests. Following the refreshments, W. G. Wolfe, I. M. Bunce, John Redburn, J. A. Crum and Grant Graff made splendid talks in which they touched upon the objects of the order and its benevolent and social features.

The festivities were brought to a close by singing the closing ode of the order which is America. The return trip was made without mishap and members voted the hunt one of the most successful in the tribe's history.

CHEER UP!

A year ago there was need for caution—that fact was repeatedly pointed out in The Magazine of Wall Street.

But today—
The effect of caution has largely been realized. Whereas the dollar of yesterday was worth less than 50c, it is today approaching its full value.

Now is the time to build firmly and substantially. Practical judgment, based on common sense, high ideals and faith unimpaired by fear, will carry the business man of today ahead farther than ever before.

We are reaching the turning point.

It is well known that the security market forecasts business conditions three to six months in advance.

And the security market has begun to advance. Large investors are buying bonds, which means that the big corporations will have money to spend for material, supplies, wages—money which will gradually percolate thru all the channels of enterprise.

Our judgment, based on 32 years of financial experience and observation, on facilities for interpreting the trend of events which are probably unexcelled by any other organization, and on the researches of a large staff of trained investigators covering not only financial conditions, but also all leading industries thruout the country—our judgment is that the money situation will show decided improvement by December; that security markets are already discounting and looking forward to the better conditions which will come in 1921, and that business men should NOW lay their plans for increased activity and more aggressive policies next year.

We offer this message to the business world in the hope that it may be of service.

VOTES TO ENLARGE LODGE QUARTERS

Favorite Lodge Knights of Pythias Takes Action Thursday Evening—Three Given Rank of Esquire.

Over one hundred members were present at the regular meeting of Favorite Lodge No. 376 Knights of Pythias Thursday evening. The members had up for decision the question of leasing the second floor of the building in which the lodge rooms are located for the purpose of giving additional needed space.

The matter has been under consideration for some weeks and the report of the committee appointed to investigate the matter was favorable. The members unanimously voted to lease the added space. It now rests with Jacksonville Lodge No. 152 which must also vote on the matter.

Following the business session the Rank of Esquire was conferred on George L. Mansfield, Harry A. Maddox and Ira H. Martin.

A special convention will be held next Wednesday evening when the Rank of Knight will be conferred. The members enjoyed ice cream and cake at the close of the meeting.

FINE INTEREST IN REVIVAL SERVICES

Largest Week Night Audience Present Thursday—Three Services Sunday.

Dr. Violette was greeted by a large audience at the services in Central Christian church Thursday evening. It completely filled the auditorium and overflowed into the Sunday school room.

The evangelist read from memory the First and Second chapters of Hebrews. From this he took his theme, "The Great Salvation." The great audience was held under the sway of Dr. Violette's eloquence and logic thrust. Eleven accessions were made to the church.

He announced as his subject for this evening, "The Art of Being Kind." On Sunday there will be three services. The regular morning service will be followed by a basket dinner at the church. The service in the afternoon will be at 2:30 o'clock. The meetings will be brought to a close with the evening service.

FARMERS CO-OPERATE IN BUYING SUPPLIES

CHICAGO.—(By The A. P.)—Cooperative purchase of supplies by farmers running co-operative grain elevators is now under way in a number of middle western states and the movement is rapidly developing, according to headquarters of the Farmers National Grain Dealers Association here. Its officers say there is likelihood that a national co-operating purchasing organization will be formed here in December at the association's first national convention.

Ohio farmers who have organized a $100,000 purchasing company are reported to have contracted for the output of a coal mine and a feed mill and to be buying materials, such as fencing and sugar, by the carload. In Iowa formation by farmers of a million-dollar corporation having purchase of farm supplies as one of its chief functions is reported. The general plan is stated to be to pool purchases and sell by mail order.

IMPROVEMENT IN RAILS NOW IN USE IN U. S.

Is Reported By American Engineering Association — Bad Condition of Rails Led to Investigation.

CHICAGO.—(By Associated Press.)—A great improvement in rails now in use in the United States is reported by the American Railway Engineering Association. Some years ago the number of rails that failed to give normal service or broke under moving trains became alarmingly large, the worst condition being reached about 1915. This led to investigation by the American Railway Association and later by the railway engineering association.

"A drop in the rail futures from almost 400 per 100 track miles for five years' service in 1908 rails to 74 in the 1914 rails is a decrease of over 80 per cent" writes M. H. Wickhorst, engineer of tests of the engineering association's rail committee in his report just issued here. "We may well feel elated over this good performance and congratulate the mills and railroads that brought about the result."

A close study of the detail reports indicates that a further decrease of over eighty per cent of the failures of the 1914 rails is possible.

Edna Sheppard and Martha Atwood will give a concert at the Illinois Woman's College Nov. 22nd, 1920. Admission, $1.00. Tickets on sale at J. Bart Johnson's and Brown's Music Stores.

MARKETING OF FOOD IS SERIOUS PROBLEM

Newly Elected Senator From North Dakota Says His First Aim in Congress Will Be to Better System for Marketing Foodstuffs.

FARGO, N. D.—(By The Associated Press.)—Dr. E. F. Ladd, first U. S. Senator elected as a candidate of the Non-partisan League, announced that his first aim in Congress will be to promote a better system for marketing the grain and other food products of the farm.

"It is a serious problem that faces congress," Dr. Ladd said. "Something must be done and within the next few years if we are to save the farming industry from demoralization. Even now the most of the men left on the farm are middle aged and elderly—the younger men are looking for greater opportunities."

"I believe that dealing in futures on shorts—selling grain in which the seller never had an equity, which never existed and which will never be delivered—" is a species of gambling which does not stabilize prices or benefit the producer or consumer. It is a matter which every legislator ought to study until he has a just comprehension of it and then consider whether it is not worthy of his attention.

"The cooperative movement must go in hand with helpful legislation in improving the situation. Farmers must come to own their buying and selling organizations."

"If legislation is passed making funds from federal reserve banks and federal land banks available to these organizations farmers will be able to hold their grains until they are needed instead of dumping them on the market at the end of the harvest."

Dr. Ladd added that effort should be made to bring a better school system into rural districts and give the farm children same chances for education hold in towns and cities.

UTILITY HEARING IS SOON TO BE HELD

Local Company Is Asking for Increased Rates—Supt. Gray Tells Why and Hopes Public Will Take Part in the Hearing

Formal notice of the fact that the Jacksonville Railway and Light Co., and other concerns associated with the Illinois Traction System are petitioning the Illinois public utilities commission for authority to increase rates appears elsewhere in this paper. For months past it has been a matter of common knowledge that the companies would seek authority for increases, although the notice of hearing has just been issued. In fact, some of the applications were filed months ago, but action was deferred from time to time by the commission.

Talking about the matter yesterday, Supt. Gray said: "At the coming hearing the Jacksonville Railway & Light Co., along with other companies of the system is expecting, and hoping that the cities interested will have representatives at the hearing and take an active part in it. When you take this into account that the company here has had no increase in gas or electric rates since 1918, I think it is very clear that we have faced tremendous difficulties in the effort to have receipts meet expenditures. It's no secret that for month after month we have been unable to accomplish this very necessary thing, so great have been the increases in the cost of doing business.

Huge Coal Costs.
"In the operation of a utility company fuel is one of the very largest factors and the public must have a pretty good idea from their own experience of the advancing costs that we have met. While the Jacksonville Railway & Light Co. receives part of its coal from mines owned by the Illinois Traction System and so obtains this fuel at figures now accounted very reasonable, a still larger part of the supply is bought from other producing companies.

"Some idea of the huge increases can be gained from the fact that last month our cost here for coal used in the gas department was $2,800 more than during the same month in 1919, and yet we produced a smaller quantity of gas. In addition to paying more than double former prices, for coal, there have been the heavy freight increases and the higher haulage costs.

"The same general increases have applied to other commodities used in our plant, to say nothing of the much larger expense for labor. It will be found at the commission hearing that we are not asking for increases which will enable us to make satisfactory returns on present operation costs, because we feel that the peak has been passed and that there will be some lower levels in months near at hand. We are therefore counting on costs somewhat like those of a year ago instead of present costs.

"We talk a great deal about fuel because that is one of the principal items of expense but a scrutiny of our records will show that fuel is only one of the increases met.

Want Publicity.
"What the utility companies want is for the people to look into the situation, to join them in the hearing before the utility commission so that there may be the fullest publicity. It is only by securing a fair increase in electric and gas rates that any utility company can hope to meet its expense, pay interest on the money invested and provide for the public the service to which the public is justly entitled. The local company courts the fullest investigation of all the facts."

RED CROSS CANVASSERS IN BUSINESS DISTRICT

Will Get Busy Today In Closing Up Donation Membership.

Red Cross solicitors will invade the business section Friday morning bringing the membership campaign downtown. It is expected that a large number of people will be enrolled from this section as last year more members were secured in it than in any one of the wards.

The soliciting this year will be done by business men as it was last year, and each business house enrolling all their employees will be furnished with a 100 per cent banner to be displayed in their window. Last year the Courier Office was the first to become 100 per cent. Canvassers in the residence section are endeavoring to close their work this week except in some places where it has been impossible to cover the territory with the number of solicitors available. All solicitors are asked to report to headquarters at the library building as rapidly as possible so that some estimate may be secured as to the results of the campaign.

There are some citizens who have not been aware of the activity of the Red Cross in the community and have not responded as rapidly as might have been expected. However, this number is few. It should be remembered that the Red Cross headquarters at the library building are open every week day during the year, and from this office aid has been extended to over 700 of the 2,500 Morgan county soldiers and sailors. This work does not diminish as new cases are in the office nearly every day. Many soldiers have been unable to secure their back pay, bonuses, changes in their insurance, etc., except thru the aid of the local Red Cross. It is hoped that the people of the community will heartily endorse the work of the Red Cross and the executive committee for the county by a generous response in membership. It takes only a heart and a dollar.

Mrs. W. H. Weatherford, wife of Sheriff Weatherford, left Thursday afternoon for Irvington, Ill., to take the two Johnson children, who were recently declared dependent in the juvenile court and committed to the institution here.

MILLIKIN COMING TO CLINCH TITLE

Decatur Review Says Team Will Come Down and Clinch Title to Championship—Illinois Expects to Have Something to Say About It.

According to the Decatur Review of Wednesday evening Millikin is merely coming down here Saturday to clinch her title on the State college conference championship.

To judge from the article, the result is a foregone conclusion and Millikin is expecting to get only a little exercise while she is doing the clinching.

However, there is just one thing in the way of Millikin's clinchers and that is Coach Harmon's Illinois College football team. Harmon, as is usual with him, has made no prediction on the outcome of the game. About all he ever says is that his team is ready to give their opponents the bet they have.

There is a quiet confidence about Harmon at the present time. The same is true of the members of the Illinois team. None of the men are bragging, but every man feels that Millikin has nothing on Illinois and they will go on Illinois field Saturday afternoon to prove it.

One thing about the Illinois team this year is that no bear stories have been sent out. While some of the men have been laid up at time during the season by minor injuries none of them were kept out of more than one game on that account. Several of the men were out for a time because of scholastic work.

Millikin has sent out several bear stories about men being injured. But we have noticed that with the exception of Patton that most of the Millikin regulars have been in the lineup in all of the important games.

Harmon and the Illinois players hope that Millikin will have all the regulars in the lineup for this game. Illinois will put the best team she has in the game and if Wann does likewise the loser will have no excuse to offer after the contest.

From inquiries coming into the college from all over the state it is probable the contest will be witnessed by the largest crowd ever in attendance at an Illinois game. Many of the old students are coming back for the homecoming and Springfield is reported to be getting up a big delegation to bring.

BENJ. R. UPHAM, LONG A CITIZEN OF MORGAN, DIES

Veteran Resident Active in Affairs of City and County Since 1850.

A veteran of the civil war, a business man, office holder—a citizen prominently identified with affairs of Jacksonville and Morgan county during the last fifty years of the nineteenth century, and even until his health broke a short time ago, died at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning at Passavant hospital. Today the departure of Benjamin R. Upham is mourned by relatives, old time acquaintances and those of the younger generations who knew him.

Nearly ninety years of age, Mr. Upham was able to be about until a few weeks ago. Since a year ago last September, he had suffered three attacks of pneumonia. Nov. 1 he again became ill, and was removed from his residence, 702 West College street, to the hospital.

Four of the aged man's children were at the bedside when the end came, the fifth, a daughter who resides in Mississippi, being absent. The remains were removed to the Reynolds Mortuary. Following funeral services to be held at the chapel at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, the remains will be taken to Chicago for cremation, accompanied by Mr. Reynolds.

In the death of this veteran, Jacksonville loses one of her most prominent older citizens.

Here Since 1840.

Benjamin R. Upham was born in Youngstown, Ohio, Feb. 27, 1830, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alva W. Upham, and consequently was ten years old when the family migrated to Morgan county.

The deceased lived until grown in the Arcadia neighborhood and then first found employment for himself at Beardsden, Cass county, as a bookkeeper with Nolte & McClure, then prominent there as packers of pork.

Later on Mr. Upham came to Jacksonville, and in 1870, began a real estate and insurance business, in which line he engaged until failing health caused him to retire. In the year 1856 he became a partner of Preston Spates, in the firm of Spates & Upham, grocers, in the Yates block, first east of the public square, on the South side of East State street. This firm afterwards became Upham & Snyder, Col. John M. Snyder taking the place of Mr. Spates; and then the war came, and the men went in.

Served in Sixties.

Mr. Upham entered the 114th Ill. Vol. in the fall of 1862 and served as sutler of that regiment until the end of the war in 1865. He became acquainted, in that service, with many officers, among them being Grant and Sherman. He was present during the historic siege of Vicksburg and had personal relations with the great war leaders during that time.

After the war Mr. Upham returned to Jacksonville and was in the employ of E. L. Greenleaf, grocer in the Strawn block, and in that of Mr. Greenleaf's successor, Fitzsimmons & Co.

Mr. Upham early became a Republican, and was a delegate to the state convention in 1858, at which time Abraham Lincoln was nominated for United States senator over Stephen A. Douglas, and heard Lincoln's famous speech about the "divided house." He was acquainted with Lincoln and heard both the "giant" make addresses.

Held Public Offices.

The deceased served four years as city clerk of Jacksonville, and was afterward county clerk of Morgan county for nine years, and was capable in each position.

He was active in affairs of his party and had been a member of or attended many conventions. Among these was the great one in Chicago in 1860, where Lincoln was nominated for president of the United States.

During these years Mr. Upham met and became intimately acquainted with many prominent and leading persons of the country. Among others, he had former Vice-president Schuyler Colfax lecture for him in 1874. General Benjamin H. Grierson and Mr. Upham were boys together at Youngstown, Ohio, and were classmates in school.

Mr. Upham was a member of the Congregational church, and served many years as treasurer of that religious body.

Wife Died in 1907.

Mr. Upham married Miss Sarah Clark, who was born in Carlyle, Ky., in 1839, and died here Feb. 28, 1907. Her parents were Kentuckians, descendants of Virginians. Her mother was a sister of Mrs. Dr. James Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Upham were the parents of:

Mary Chevis, a teacher of art, who for some years has been head of that department in the Illinois School for the Deaf here.

Abner M., well known in business circles here, also having been superintendent of the water department and a member of the board of education. He is now engaged in insurance business in Des Moines, Ia.

Louise, a teacher of the deaf, now engaged in that work at Mt. Airy, Philadelphia, Penn.

Henry C., also an insurance dealer, residing in Indianapolis.

Una, who was also for a time engaged in teaching of the deaf, married Walter Read, a son of J. V. Read. They live in Gulfport, Miss.

Funeral services will be held from the Reynolds chapel this afternoon at 3 o'clock in charge of Dr. F. S. Hayden. The body will be taken to Chicago this evening for cremation.

DECADENCE OF SMALL TOWN IS INDICATED

By Survey Recently Made of Social Conditions in Rural Communities by Kansas City Pastor—Outclassed by Farmers.

Kansas City, Mo.—One of the outstanding features of a survey of social conditions in rural communities of the middle west by L. H. Birkhead, pastor of All Souls' Unitarian Church of this city, is the decadence of the country town. The survey is based on observation made by Dr. Birkhead in more than eighty towns in Minnesota, South Dakota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Illinois and Wisconsin, while he was on a lecture tour. Dr. Birkhead, who is an active social worker, discussed community problems in each of the towns and made careful inquiry as to local conditions in order to make his lectures pertinent.

Almost everywhere, Dr. Birkhead reports, the country town is either actually losing its population or is barely holding its own. Instead of being the capital, as it were, of the surrounding farming district, leading in business enterprise, education and progress, almost everywhere the country town is outclassed by the farmers.

Leadership is needed, Dr. Birkhead says, but there is nothing to develop leadership, no satisfactory opportunity for young people, and they go, elsewhere. In one community 90 per cent of the young people went to the city.

The country town merchant, according to Dr. Birkhead, conducts his business by the time wrong methods and the mail order house takes his place. In addition, says the retired farmer, is not an asset to the town, seeming to "rot out" after leaving the activities of farm life.

On the other hand, Dr. Birkhead says, the farmer is wide-awake and progressive so long as he remains on the farm. Co-operative enterprises are springing up everywhere. There are co-operative hardware and general merchandise stores. There are co-operative mills and elevators owned by farmers.

The projects are incorporated, the farmers are stockholders, they hold meetings and appoint salaried men to administer the business.

Great pride is taken in the schools, Dr. Birkhead's survey shows, but in every town there were from one to five dead churches. Some signs of a movement to establish community churches were apparent.

The farming communities have received their inspiration from the national and state departments of agricultural colleges and from the farm papers, according to Dr. Birkhead. There is a farm agent in practically every county who represents the state department of agriculture. Farmer's Institutes, which began at state agricultural colleges are now held in different towns and lectures on farm subjects are given.

In many counties there is a woman demonstrator who advises with the women concerning everything about the home-canning modern kitchen equipment, laundry machinery and similar subjects.

There is nothing like this for the country town—no organization for improvement.

"The two great needs of the farm are better equipped homes and good roads," Dr. Birkhead says. "The American farm is the best equipped in the world, but modern improvements in the homes are greatly needed. In many cases the barns are better equipped than the houses, perhaps having running water where there is none at the house."

In many places, farm tenancy is increasing and the permanent good of the farm and of the community suffering. The tenant does not take the same interest in keeping up the value of the land, nor in the co-operative enterprises of the community. The condition is due to farmers retiring and leaving their lands to tenants. 60 per cent of the farm land is occupied by tenants.

Antonio Bernick, of St. Paul, Minn., who says he now eats better, sleeps better and works better, as a result of taking Tanlac. Says all his friends are talking about his improvement.

"There must be something wonderful about Tanlac for it has made me feel better, eat better, sleep better and work better," said Anton Bernick, of 136 East Congress street, St. Paul, Minn., a well known employee of Swift & Company.

"Tanlac has helped me so much that all my friends are stopping me on the street and asking me what it is that is making me look so well, and of course I am always glad to tell them it is Tanlac. I hadn't been down sick in bed exactly, but I hadn't felt just right for a long time. I was all run down, had indigestion, my appetite was poor and nothing agreed with me. In fact, I had to force down every mouthful I would eat and I would always suffer from indigestion for an hour or so after every meal. I also had headaches and would get so dizzy at times I could hardly keep from falling. I simply had no ambition or energy to do anything."

"Just as I have already said, Tanlac has made a brand-new man of me and I am feeling fine now in every way. Of course I will always recommend Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover Drug Co., and J. P. Shreve, and by the leading drug store in every town.—Adv.

THERE is a big difference between Calumet and all other Baking Powders.

First—you see it in the cost. Calumet is sold at a moderate price.

Then—you observe it in use. Calumet has more than the usual leavening strength, therefore less is required.

Next—you notice it in raising quality—in the evenness—lightness and texture of your bakings. They look better—finer grained.

"S-o-m-e Biscuit!"

"BEST BY TEST"

CALUMET

BAKING POWDER

Finally—what a difference in the taste. There is a deliciousness, a goodness that can be had in no other manner. Biscuits, pies, cakes, muffins, doughnuts—never were so tasty—so all satisfying.

And then there is the satisfaction of knowing that Calumet is made in the World's largest, best equipped and cleanest Baking Powder Factories.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Calumet Biscuit
Recipe
4 cups of sifted pastry flour, 4 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder, 1 level teaspoon of salt, 2 rounded tablespoons of butter or lard, 1/2 cup of milk, 1/2 cup of water. Turn out the regular way.

FORMER RESIDENTS CASS COUNTY VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Arzo J. Willard of Sedro-Wooley, Wash., visit Cass County after long absence—Clark Funeral Service—Other Virginia Items.

Virginia, Nov. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Arzo J. Willard of Sedro-Wooley, Wash., are the guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Ellen Irvine, in this city and numerous other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Willard were former Cass county people, leaving for their present western home 37 years ago.

Among the local people who attended the State assembly of L. O. O. F. and Rebekahs at Springfield were J. J. Berger, Mesdames W. R. Martin, Joseph Kilham, B. K. Simmons and Misses Stella Dale, Kathryn Irvine, Mrs. Forrest Fairfax, Mrs. J. R. Sligh and Mrs. Nettie Virgin.

Virginia seems to have a revival of robbing which had for a time subsided. Among the recent home to be touched are the L. B. Thompson residence, which was entered one night last week and about $200 worth of table linen and a like amount of silver were taken. Sunday morning at 3 o'clock Mrs. Horace Davis was awakened by noise made by some sneak thief in the house. Wearing apparel and a rifle was stolen there weeks ago was recovered at a pawn shop in Springfield, the watch having been pawned by a woman who made her get away, but detectives are on the trail.

Funeral services over the remains of the late William Clark were held Sunday at 2:30 at the Church of Christ, Rev. C. V. Wright, pastor of the Baptist church of Ashland officiating. Music was furnished by a quartet composed of Mesdames Louise Montgomery, Edith Savage, Messrs. J. J. Berger and W. R. Blackburn.

The bearers were Curtis McNeely, Frank Pearn, R. H. Mann, S. Buck, Henry Jacobs and Norval Hinchee.

Interment was in Walnut Ridge cemetery. The out of town relatives in attendance were: E. L. Clark, and family of Jacksonville; Simeon Fernandes and family, Mrs. Mamie Steinritz and daughters, of Springfield; Mrs. H. F. Randolph of Beverly.

W. O. Kikendall, who has been ill at a Springfield hospital, has returned to his home in this city.

Mrs. W. T. Trimble is the guest of her husband, who is a patient at a Jacksonville hospital.

Henry Monroe has leased his residence to Mr. Burney Flannigan, for the winter months and will visit with relatives in Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bullard, former residents of this city, but now residing in Rock Island are visiting in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Murry and Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher went to Beardstown to attend an entertainment given by the Chicago Operatic Co.

Mrs. Ollie Allen moved her household goods from the William Hill residence today.

Miss Addie Buckley is the guest of Ashland relatives today.

Among the Jacksonville shoppers Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Trimble; Mesdames J. W. Garner, L. B. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Murry; Misses Olive Fiedler, Christine Sligh, Pauline Lyles, Lucile Miner and Greta Gill.

THOSE MONUMENT NAMES

A number of weeks since announcement was made that additional names for the soldiers' monument in Central park might be sent to S. W. Nichols at the Journal office. People have been very slow in attending to this. Even yet names continue to filter in but soon the list will be closed and that will be the last chance. Send in all the names of men who were soldiers or sailors in the Civil war from 1861 to '65 and who lived in Morgan county a number of years so as to be identified with the county, not necessarily for those who enlisted in the county, provided they made their home here any length of time, enough to be considered identified with the county.

Occasionally one sends in a World war veteran's name. It would be a pleasure to use these, but it is impracticable. It is, however, to be hoped that something will be done to afford our brave boys in the last war suitable recognition and that the country or the county will not wait till the war has been over fifty years before the work is undertaken and that when it is under way it will go ahead without unnecessary delays.

U. OF I. TO OBSERVE "DAD'S DAY" NOV. 20

Urbana, Ill.—Old age will step side by side with youth on the University of Illinois campus on November 20. Following a custom started several years ago by individual fraternity houses there has been set aside this year one day when the fathers of all university students will be invited to the campus. This day is Saturday.

"Dad's Day" is the way the date has been designated and tags are ready and waiting for the fathers. These tags will proclaim to the youth of the campus, "Hello Boys, I'm a Visiting Dad." And youth will come right back at old age with, "Hello, Dad, I'm Glad You're Here."

Smokers, "mixers," tours of the campus and buildings, and the football game with Ohio state, the championship game for the Western conference title, constitute a few of the many amusements and pastimes offered the dads.

President David Kinley will be among the many prominent speakers scheduled to talk at the smokers. More than 3,000 dads are expected. This is the first attempt ever made to have a general gathering of students' fathers and it will be an annual affair hereafter.

A FAVORABLE COMPARISON

A day or two since a boy stepped into a Jacksonville store and asked the price of an article and remarked he would be back later to see about it. The lad did so and said the Jacksonville merchant's price was a trifle less than that quoted by one of the leading mail order houses of the land. The merchant thought that a bit strange so he procured a huge catalog which the house publishes, the latest edition, and found the boy was right. He then went on to compare and found in a great many articles he was even with or a trifle lower than the city house and people buying of the latter would have express charges to pay in addition.

Before the Public Utilities Commission of Illinois.

In the matter of the proposed advances of rates for electric, gas and street railway service, stated in schedules filed by Bloomington & Normal Ry. & L. Co., Cairo Electric & Traction Co., Clinton Gas & Electric Co., Danville Street Railway & Light Co., Decatur Railway & Light Co., Galesburg Ry. & Light Co., Jacksonville Railway & Light Co., Madison County Light & Power Co., Mound City Light & Water Co., Northern Illinois Light & Traction Co., Quincy Railway & Light Co., Urbana Light, Heat & Power Co., Urbana Light, Heat & Power Co., 7704.

PETITION FOR MODIFICATION OF ORDER ENTERED MAY 16, 1918, IN ABOVE CAUSE, FOR THE REOPENING OF SAID CAUSE FOR FURTHER EVIDENCE AND FOR FURTHER AND ADDITIONAL RELIEF THEREIN.

To the Public Utilities Commission of Illinois:

Petitioners herein, the Bloomington & Normal Railway & Light Co., Cairo Electric and Traction Co., Clinton Gas and Electric Co., Danville Street Railway & Light Co., Decatur Railway & Light Co., Galesburg Railway & Light Co., Jacksonville Railway & Light Co., Madison County Light & Power Co., Mound City Light & Water Co., Northern Illinois Light & Traction Co., Urbana and Champaign Railway, Gas & Electric Company and Urbana Light, Heat & Power Company, respectfully represent that on February 15, 1918, they filed a joint and several petition with this Commission asking approval of certain schedules of rates, concurrently filed therewith, and that after full hearing and due consideration thereof an order was entered by this Commission on May 16, 1918, allowing with certain modifications and exceptions upon certain conditions, increased rates for electric, gas and street railway service rendered by these petitioners.

The character of relief then prayed for and the justification for the presenting of said joint petition is conclusively stated in the third paragraph of the Commission's order of May 16, 1918, as follows:

"The basis of this petition is that the operating expenses of these various utilities have increased so rapidly during the year 1917, as to render the net income from the operation of said utilities at the present rates for the respective services rendered, wholly insufficient to pay operating expenses and to provide properly for depreciation and a reasonable return upon the fair value of said utilities, which income, therefore, is insufficient to maintain a proper and efficient service. These increases are asked as an emergency requirement brought about by the extraordinary and unprecedented increase in the cost of labor and material and all operating supplies as a result of war conditions."

At the time this petition was filed, the United States of America had been at war for about ten months, and the tremendous surge of war activity was then absorbing a large part of the productive capacity of the country. The tremendous demand for material and labor incident to the prosecution of the war, in the winter of 1917 and 1918, was just beginning to force upward the price level of raw materials and particularly the costs of coal and metal supplies so necessary in utility operation. The length and character of the war, it was not possible then to foretell, nor could it then be anticipated to what heights prices for both labor and material would eventually go.

Therefore, the petitioners asked only in the expectation and with the hope that the conditions then surrounding the petitioners, unusual and burdensome as they seemed to be, would be of short duration and would quickly pass with the termination of hostilities. Conforming to the petition and reflecting presumably the belief and expectation of the members of the Commission with reference to the future conditions, an appropriate provision was made in the order of May 16, 1918, limiting the time during which the increased rates should be permitted to continue in effect and providing for a return by petitions to the pre-war rates within six months after the formal termination of the war. Jurisdiction was reserved by the Commission over the entire cause and specifically for the purpose of entering at any future time such further order as the facts might justify.

The belief of these petitioners as to the trend and extent of the increases in coal and other supplies necessary for their operation and as to the character of the war, however, they would be called upon to pay was not realized. It is now a matter of common knowledge that the increases in coal and material costs up to January 1, 1918, although they seemed large at the time, were followed by the greater increases which have brought these prices to their present high level. These price levels, particularly for coal, did not cease to advance upon the close of actual hostilities but continued to rise long after the fighting had ceased, and up to this present time, are showing no tendency toward lower levels.

It is also commonly known that wage earners aided by the example and liberality of the government during the war and by high prices and large profits in certain industrial lines during the intervening period have been enabled to demand higher and higher wages from public utilities until at this time wages stand firmly entrenched upon a scale which was not anticipated by their most optimistic leaders during the early progress of the war.

Petitioners respectfully show that all of the conditions set forth in their original petition and justifying the temporary relief still persist, but are far more aggravated form, and that so far as we can now foretell, their present conditions will continue substantially unchanged as to public utility operations for an indefinite period. Petitioners are therefore compelled to ask not only that the temporary relief heretofore granted for a limited period be made permanent but that additional relief to the extent herein specified be also allowed.

Petitioners further show that during the period of the war their properties have been operated in the most efficient manner possible, that in spite of demands made upon the ranks of their operating organization for national service during the war, and the necessity of using inexperienced and less competent help and notwithstanding the lack of essential materials and delays and difficulties in obtaining supplies the public demand for service during all of this period has been met, without further increases in rates for gas and electric service (for the most part) above those granted in order of May 16, 1918. A comparison of the records of operating efficiency in plants of petitioners with similar records of other properties within the state will show that the standard of service in petitioners' properties has been wonderfully well maintained and in most cases improved during this difficult period and that this service is now better than the average in other properties throughout the state.

Petitioners further show that notwithstanding the high cost of materials, the difficulties of securing all, and the well-nigh impossibility of securing some material during this period, they have made many improvements and additions to their properties and that the total value of all such additions made to the properties here in question since Jan. 1, 1918, amounts to $2,000,000.00. Petitioners show that such additional expenditures ought to be considered as increasing to that extent the so-called minimum or bare original cost values for the respective properties used in said prior proceedings.

Petitioners further show that during the past two years, they have been confronted with repeated and persistent requests for additional electric service by industries and to some extent for gas and electric service by individuals in districts not heretofore served; that to meet these demands for service, petitioners will be required to make large additions to their plants and facilities at prices for material and labor which are unprecedented. Petitioners show that at the present level of rates for electric power and for gas they would be entirely unable to make the necessary capital expenditures and to render the service demanded, because the margin of profit afforded under present rates is too small to afford a satisfactory return upon the actual cost of the extensions necessary. Power resources would in many instances be willing to pay a higher rate in order to get the required service, but such proposal is not possible of consideration under the present law.

Petitioners further show that in order to secure capital required to meet and retire notes and bonds falling due and to make additional capital expenditures required and demanded, that securities must be marketed and sold; that petitioners are able to market such securities only in small amounts and with the greatest effort; and that they are being required to offer a discount and a rate of interest which entails an actual interest cost upon the petitioners in excess of 8 per cent and reaching in certain instances higher rates for all money secured. Such increase in interest charges is not peculiar to utility properties, but applies to all securities issued by railroads, industrial corporations, and to some extent by municipalities; that such increase in interest charges makes necessary the allowance by this Commission of larger measure of return than heretofore allowed upon the accepted value of petitioners' property, and that the margin of such return above the going interest rate upon accepted and high grade utility securities must be not less than 33 1/3 per cent.

Petitioners show that during the war and particularly during the two years following the actual close of hostilities, large increases have been made by local assessing bodies in the values of petitioners' properties for taxation purposes; that the tax rate has been greatly increased, due to increased cost of government activities and to a stoppage of other sources of public revenue; further that the state has provided for and is now collecting additional taxes from corporations and particularly from public utilities within its borders. The additional burden of all of these taxes, entirely independent of and without reference to the heavy burden of federal taxation, is seriously impairing the net revenues of petitioners and will amount to the sum of $101,870.95 increase this coming year over the similar state and local taxes payable during the year 1918.

Petitioners further show that immediately following the order entered by this Commission on May 16, 1918, freight rates upon all railroads, both within and without the state, were increased by 25 per cent and in certain instances by a large percentage; and that such increase has been recently followed during this year, 1920, by further increases of 40 per cent on interstate freight rates to eastern points and of 35 per cent on interstate freight rates within the state. Those increases in freight have resulted in corresponding increases in the cost of all raw materials and supplies, and particularly in an increased cost of moving coal to the respective plants of petitioners over the costs prevalent in 1918. These increases were not foreseen in May, 1918, and constitute substantial and in all respects permanent increases in operating costs, which must be taken care of out of rates received from the public.

Petitioners further show that at the time of the former hearing before the Commission in this case in the year 1918, the increase in wages incident to and resulting from war conditions was just beginning to be reflected in operating costs; that subsequent to such hearing increases in wages for every class and condition of employees have been required again and again in order to preserve the integrity of the operating organization, and to keep pace with wages paid in other and more prosperous lines of industry. The average wage paid to all classes of employees on typical properties of petitioners has increased from $2.50 per day in 1918 to $4.17 per day in October, 1920, without substantial change in character or amount of service collectively rendered.

Petitioners further show that of their operating expense from month to month, from 60 per cent to 75 per cent represents the cost of coal and supplies, the exact percentage varying with different properties and from month to month; that while the cost of steam coal during the year 1918 was about $1.00 per ton on the average, the present cost of steam coal approximates $3.50 per ton and shows no tendency toward decline. The increases in gas coal for gas making and of gas oil have been of still more extraordinary character, all of which have been reflected in increased costs of production.

Petitioners show that all of these increases in materials and supplies, in freight and in wages, together with capital, and in taxes were entirely unforeseen in May, 1918, and that these constitute an additional and unsupported burden upon petitioners and for which the relief afforded in order entered on May 16, 1918, was in no sense intended to provide and has not provided an adequate relief.

Petitioners further show that since May 16, 1918, the rates charged for gas and electric service by petitioners in all the towns and cities served by them have remained substantially unchanged and that the conditions above referred to, arising subsequent to said former order, require that said cause be reopened and that further, additional and more permanent relief be allowed and that said rates established at that time and based on operating costs as of that date be modified in relation to and in proportion to present operating costs and other present conditions.

Petitioners further show that in the exhibits prepared and submitted in this said cause in the first and subsequent hearings certain values were submitted as representing the then minimum values which could possibly be placed upon the properties under conditions then existing by any appraising body; that an appraisal department has been since created by petitioners with a view and for the purpose of appraising and valuing the properties of petitioners used and useful in the public service. Petitioners show that several of such valuations have been completed and the assembled figures for those properties completed show a present reproduction cost now on present prices in excess of values then submitted for those properties of from 100 per cent to 125 per cent, and after deduction for depreciation, an excess of value from 80 per cent to 100 per cent over minimum values heretofore assigned and used. Petitioners, without asking in this cause, a reconsideration of such values, or a redetermination thereof respectfully ask leave to reserve its rights in other and subsequent proceedings to prove and insist upon higher and more adequate values.

Petitioners have prepared and are filing herewith new schedules of gas, street railway and electric rates, which are increases generally over the rates now in effect, approved and permitted to be filed by order of May 16, 1918. A list of all these schedules is attached hereto for convenience and reference as Supplement No. 1. Petitioners show that the rates set forth in these schedules are in all respects reasonable and just rates, under present conditions of operation, and will, if approved and allowed to become effective, afford during the ensuing year no more net revenue than is absolutely required to meet the present requirement for depreciation and such moderate return as is essential to the preservation and efficient growth of the properties.

Petitioners therefore respectfully pray that this cause may be reopened for purpose of permitting petitioners to introduce further and additional evidence as to matters arising subsequent to original hearing herein and to order of May 16, 1918, and that the limit of time for the rates authorized in said order heretofore entered may be vacated and further and additional relief be afforded as according to the evidence submitted may be justified.

Petitioners further pray that the several schedules of rates covering gas, electric and street railway service, and being increases over the rates authorized and approved in said prior order of May 16, 1918, which are set forth and described on sheet hereto attached, as said Supplement No. 1, be by final order herein entered approved and permitted to become effective, subject to such condition and to such further reservation of jurisdiction as this Commission may deem appropriate.

Dated at Peoria, Illinois, this 15th day of November, 1920.

CHANDLERVILLE OUT FOR BASKET HONORS

Chandlerville, Nov. 18.—The opening game for our Independents will be Monday evening, Nov. 22, when the locals will journey to Athens to play the Athletics of that place. Manager Leeper predicts a hard game, but says his team will win. On next Wednesday, Nov. 24, the locals play New Berlin at New Berlin. The Independents would like to book games with some fast teams in or around Jacksonville. For games write John Leeper, Chandlerville.

DARTMOUTH WILL PLAY UNIVERSITY OF WASH.
Zosston, Nov. 18.—Dartmouth's football squad, numbering 21 men will leave after the game next Saturday to meet the University of Washington eleven at Seattle, Nov. 27.

LOMBARD WILL HAVE HOME-COMING

GALESBURG, Ill., Nov. 18.—A home-coming at Lombard college tomorrow will be featured by the annual Knox-Lombard football game to be played on the Knox field. Knox has not lost a game to their local rivals since 1910, although they were held to a scoreless tie in 1918. This year, Lombard with a stronger team than usual has a better opportunity to annex a victory than they have had for the past five or six years. The Siwash eleven will be crippled because of injuries, but their followers are expecting them to continue their run of victories. The game is exciting a great deal of interest and enthusiasm among students and local football fans. Walter Eckersall of Chicago, Frank Birch of Earlham and Norman Elliott of Illinois Wesleyan will be the officials for the contest.

MAN O'WAR WILL NOT BE PUBLIC STALLION

New York, Nov. 18.—Man O'War, the super horse will not become a public stallion, as was recently announced by his owner, Samuel Riddle, but will be turned over to Walter M. Jeffords, who will breed him only to his own mares. This announcement today caused disappointment to many well-known breeders.

BROOKLYN PITCHER WILL BE MARRIED

New York, Nov. 18.—Leon Cadore, Brooklyn National league pitcher and Miss Helen J. Sweeney of Brooklyn, will be married next Saturday, it was announced today. Cadore was a lieutenant during the war and was decorated for bravery.

WILL DRAW UP BASEBALL AND TRACK SCHEDULES

Bloomington, Ill., Nov. 18.—The annual meeting of the Illinois intercollegiate Athletic conference will be held in Bloomington Friday, December 10, it was announced here today. At that time schedules for baseball and track meet will be selected and the football championship awarded. Some 50 coaches and representatives will be present to attend the sessions.

JOHNNY EVERS WILL BE GIVEN HOMECOMING SPREAD

Chicago, Nov. 18.—The date for the homecoming banquet to be tendered Johnny Evers, of the Cubs, was set today for Dec. 7. Judge Landis, recently appointed chairman of the national commission, will be asked to act as toastmaster. Many baseball officials from other cities are expected to attend.

Johnny Evers is remembered as the "keystone" of the 1907 and 1908 championship years, in which the Tinkerto-Evers-to-Chance combination became famous.

IOWA COACH PICKS ALL CONFERENCE TEAM

MAY LENGTHEN MAJOR LEAGUE TO 168 GAMES

New York, Nov. 18.—When the major leagues hold their annual meetings in February, they will consider a proposition to lengthen each team's schedule to 168 games instead of 154, as heretofore, it was learned today. Proponents of the plan argued that since many of the teams are allowed to play on Sunday on their home grounds the season would not be unduly lengthened by the proposed change.

BELGIAN BILLIARD STAR ARRIVES IN NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 18.—Edouard Heremans, Belgian billiard wizard, who brought with him his pet "patched" cue, with which he won nearly all his European contests. It has been repaired, spliced and swaddled with adhesive tape seven times. Belgium, France and Holland have furnished various pieces of wood in making the composite cue, it is today. Heremans intends to use it in all his matches in this country.

FINNISH RUNNER TO APPEAR AT BOSTON

New York, Nov. 18.—William Ritola, cross-country Finnish runner, who won the A. A. U. hill-and-date race at Vancourtland Park last Saturday will compete as an individual for national senior championship honors in the race next Saturday over the Franklin course in Boston.

Mrs. Lee McGinnis of Concord was a city caller yesterday.

Miss Nettie Nash was up to the city from Chapin yesterday.

ATHLETICS EXPECT TO DEFEAT MURRAYVILLE

Centenary oys Will Try for Revenge in Battle at David Prince Friday Night.

What is expected to be one of the fastest basketball games ever staged in the city is scheduled for 8 o'clock Friday night at the David Prince school gymnasium. The Centenary Athletics will struggle for revenge over the Murrayville high school five.

These teams met three weeks ago in this city, and such a battle as is seldom seen resulted. The Murrayville boys won in the last minute, the final score being 9 to 8. The Centenary players claimed it was luck that did it, and believe they can win Friday night.

Manager Siegfried of the church team stated today that his team has never been in better shape for a game. The lineup has been switched and strengthened.

An attempt is being made to bring the second teams of the Murrayville school and Centenary church together. Should this game be decided upon, it will be started at 7:30 o'clock.

Murrayville high's lineup is announced as follows: Forwards, Short and Kennedy; center, Covey; guards, Jones and Riggs; utility, Hull. The Centenary lineup will be: Forwards, Lucas and Wood; center, Hunter; guards, Johnson, Cannon or Lancy; utility, Dthathage.

CAPTAIN DEPLER MAY NOT PLAY SATURDAY

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 18.—Captain Depler, center on the University of Illinois team, was injured during scrimmage last night. The extent of his injuries have not been determined. There is fear in the Illini camp, however, that he may not be able to play Saturday. Hellstrom also suffered a minor injury, but will be in the scrimmage this evening. Zuppke has Al Mohr to fall back on for the center position, but Mohr lacks the finish of Depler, who is rated as one of the best centers in the country. It is possible, too, that Reitsch may be put in the lineup. He is a good man but lacks the training required for championship contest.

Jacksonville Chapter No. 3 R. A. M. will hold a special convocation this evening at 7:30 o'clock. WORK. Visiting companions welcome. W. P. Spillman, E. H. P. John R. Phillips, Secy.

FIND FRANKLIN PENNY

Dover, Mass. — A Franklin penny, the first copper coin to be authorized by congress, has been found on the homestead of one of the first settlers here. It was struck in 1787, and is one of a few that were coined.

The penny took its name from Benjamin Franklin because of the inclusion in its design of the homely admonition, "Mind Your Business," after a suggestion by him that coins should serve purposes other than those of legal tender.

On one side 13 circles appear linked together, a small circle in the middle with the words, "United States" around it, and in the center, "We are one." On the other side is a dial with the hours indicated, a meridian sun above it, on one side of which is the word, "Eugio" and on the other the date, "1787." Below the dial appears the Franklin phrase, "Mind your business."

Use Michelin Tubes Why Because They Fit Why Because Made to Fit

Your tire is circular in form, and a tube to fit properly, must be curved correspondingly.

Michelin tubes are made ring-shape so they will fit a ring-shape tire without pinching or wrinkling and breaking, adding greatly to the tube's life and dollars to your pocket.

Straight tubes won't fit ring-shape articles. WE SELL MICHELINS
